Peabody Engineering – Terms and Conditions

Legal Effect: Peabody Engineering and Supply Inc., (hereinafter "Peabody"). The following terms and conditions shall apply to and from a part of any order by Purchaser. Any additions and / or changes to the following terms, which may be contained in Purchaser's buying order, are hereby rejected in advance and shall not become a part of any order unless expressly agreed to in writing by an authorized employee of Peabody. Orders cannot be cancelled or altered by Purchaser, except with the written consent of Peabody and upon terms which will indemnify Peabody against any loss occasioned thereby. (See "Terms of Payment" and "Cancellation"). All additional costs incurred by Peabody due to any modifications, revisions or changes in design or specifications must be paid by Purchaser.

Acceptance: All offers to purchase, proposals and contracts of sale are subject to final approval and acceptance in writing by an authorized employee of Peabody.

Terms of Payment: Unless specified otherwise by Peabody in writing, the terms of payment shall be net cash or equivalent within thirty (30) days after shipment. These terms apply to partial as well as to complete shipments. All freight invoiced by Peabody is due upon receipt of invoice with no discounts. (See "Delivery"). (No retainages of any kind will be permitted).

If any proceeding is initiated by or against Purchaser under any bankruptcy or insolvency law, or if, in the judgment of Peabody, the financial condition of the Purchaser at the time the goods or equipment is ready for shipment does not justify the terms of payment otherwise specified. Peabody reserves the right to require full payment in cash prior to making shipment. If such payment is not received within fifteen (15) calendar days after notification of readiness for shipment, Peabody may cancel the order any time prior to shipment and require payment of Peabody's reasonable cancellation charges (See "Cancellation Fee").

If Purchaser requests or otherwise causes a delay in shipment of any goods or equipment, payment based on date of shipment shall become due as of the date when ready for shipment. If Purchaser delays the completion of the manufacture of certain goods or equipment, Peabody may elect to require payment according to the percentage of completion. Goods or equipment held by Peabody for the benefit of Purchaser shall be at Purchaser's own risk and storage charges may be applied at the discretion of Peabody.

Accounts past due shall bear interest at the highest rate lawful under the law. If there is no limit set by law, such interest will be at a rate of 1 1/2% per month, or eighteen percent (18%) on an annual basis, compounded monthly. Purchaser shall pay all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees, incurred in collecting same.

Cancellation Fee: In the event that the Purchaser requests or causes cancellation of any order, Purchaser agrees to pay Peabody a cancellation fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the invoice amount of said cancelled order. In addition, Purchaser agrees to indemnify or reimburse Peabody for Peabody's actual costs, expense and / or charges incurred up to and including the date of cancellation in connection with the manufacture or procurement of the goods or equipment being cancelled.

Return Policy: No returns accepted without prior authorization. All merchandise is subject to a 30% restocking charge. All custom orders are nonrefundable.

Title of Goods/Taxes: Purchaser acknowledges that, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, all sales shall be consummated, and all rights, title and ownership to the goods or equipment being sold shall take place in the state in which delivery of the goods and / or equipment is made of Purchaser. All goods and equipment purchased from Peabody are subject to inspection and final approval by Purchaser at Purchaser's place of business, or place of delivery if different from Purchaser's place of business, within ten (10) days of delivery date. If no claims are made to Peabody within ten (10) calendar days of delivery of said goods and / or equipment of Purchaser's place of business or other designated delivery point, Purchaser acknowledges that goods and / or equipment are acceptable for full payment. Purchaser acknowledges that all sales will be subject to the imposition of all applicable sales and use taxes in the state in which the sale consummated and title of goods is transferred unless Purchaser provides Peabody, no later than the date of shipment, with a resale exemption certificate or other sales or use tax exemption certificate issued by the state in which such sales take place. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that, except for sales which occur in the State of California, Purchasers shall be solely responsible for the payment of any state sales and / or use taxes on the goods and / or equipment purchased and Peabody shall have no obligation, whatsoever, for the collection of said taxes and / or remittance of same to the appropriate State Taxing authorities.

All sales to or in the State of California (where delivery is made to the Purchaser in California), shall be subject to California sales and use taxes unless Purchaser provides to Peabody, on or prior to the date of shipment, a resale exemption certificate or other sales and / or use tax exemption certificate issued by the State of California.

Peabody shall collect all such sales and use taxes due on any sales made to purchasers in California unless Purchaser provides Peabody with the proper sales and use tax exemption certificate specified above. In the event that sales and use taxes are not charged to Purchaser by Peabody and it is later determined that such taxes are in fact payable for a specific purchase or purchases, Peabody agrees to remit such sales and use taxes along with any interest and penalties that may be levied and / or accrued, immediately upon notification by Peabody that such taxes are due.
